Hydraulic Torque Wrench – Low Profile Model (Technical and operation training at customer’s plant)

The training was conducted at the plant site of a customer and the equipment is a hydraulic torque wrench (low profile model). Our engineers demonstrated the equipment and encouraged the customers to experiment with the tool. The results are a better understanding of the equipment features and capability and very satisfied customers.

Hydraulic Rams and Pump

The hydraulic rams were deployed to lift a heavy structure at the construction site.

The tools were able to complete the task without fail. Besides, the lifting was finished according to schedule and within budget.

The results are very satisfied customers.
